“ I am glad I got to see him when I visited, even if it wasn't for very long. One of the first times we actually said love you to each other. I really didn't get to know my dad as a whole until I was about 18. But in these years I learned we are so much alike. I am glad I gave him that chance to be apart of my life.

I knew and worked with Mark for many years at AVJSA and after his retirement. I was in awe of how he took his setbacks in stride, especially his many weeks/months in nursing homes. He just made the best of his circumstances. May he and his family find peace. Rest in peace Mark.
