“ If you ever had the chance to meet my Mimi, you would know that she was an absolute ☆ icon ☆.

She was the most loving, doting, supportive, and thoughtful person. She also could make anyone laugh, told the best stories, and always had a handsome man (or three) taped up on her fridge. Any time I called her I knew I'd hear a "Hello Darlin" and any time I saw her I knew to expect some sort of very thoughtful garage sale find.

We lost her last week and I'll never be the same. I cherish the time I had with her. Love you Meem ❤️

Although we didn't spend lots of times together, the times we did were dear to me....Mart was always fun, honest, loving and loyal. A real genuine lovely woman!

“ Our family mourns the loss of our dear cousin Marty. Her quick wit and cheery outlook on life always brought a smile and hearty laughter to every family gathering. Following her mom's (my Aunt Martha) tradition of a festive Christmas party, was always the highlight of the holiday season. You could count on delicious food and lots of lively conversation in every corner of the house. Her sliced kielbasa and horse radish dip brought back memories of my childhood when her mom and "Mum" served it at their house. Mart's yard sale finds were always a conversation starter as she could find a bargain and find a shelf to display it. Her flair for interior design made for a well appointed showcase home. She was always so happy to talk about Jeff and Jen and her grand daughters lit up her life. We love and miss you and my heart goes out Michelle and Johnny, and my dear cousins Jeff and Jennifer.

Our deepest condolences.
