Mary Joe Settino

A bright light left this earth Dec. 23 with the death of Mary Joe Settino. Born Nov. 2, 1933, in Wheeling WV, the only child of Dr. Joseph Settino and Grace Hoffmann Settino, she grew up in Sharpsburg. She graduated from the Pa. College for Women (now Chatham) in 1955. The Settinos built a house in Fox Chapel; six months after moving in, Dr. Settino died. Mary Joe quit the job she loved in order to care for her mother. Mary Joe was an avid reader, a faithful hospital and museum volunteer, and a good friend. When she could no longer afford the Fox Chapel house, she moved into the senior high-rise in Sharpsburg and then to North Hills ManorCare. Bedbound for the last five years, she never tired of recounting her vivid memories of growing up in Sharpsburg and remembering her outrageous travel experiences. When she was angry about something the whole world knew it, and when she was pleased, which was often, her laughter could be heard up and down the hallways. With all the twists and turns in her life, she never looked back, never complained about what she had lost. She was the last of her family. She is survived by friends Judi Bossung and Carolyn Russ and by ManorCare residents and aides drawn to her good humor and generous spirit.
