“ I will always remember swinging on your swing in the yard. Playing with all the kittens. Walking over with my Mom for coffee and cookies. It was such a warm kitchen and home. You let me sit and watch your parakeets as long as I wanted before running out to play. You made everyones childhood special.

“ I'll never forget her chocolate no bake cookies at our school picnics, having tea & peanut butter toast when I'd sleep over, her & Uncle Sonny sitting right next to one another in their car (now that would have been in the 60's or 70's I think, and her & my Gram dancing polkas at the weddings. One of my funny memories is that I shocked her one day with a dirty (f) word that slipped out on accident and she ticked like a clock...tsk, tsk, tsk, tsk, shaking her head and laughing while I was mortified, apologizing for the slip. I loved her so much, and didn't get to see her near often enough. She was always good to me and I will miss her very much.
With love & fond remembrance,
