“ I only met Maureen in the last 8 years; met her through another friend. We went on a cruise together in Feb. 2019 and had a wonderful time; we celebrated her birthday on the trip! I could tell how much she loved her family and all animals! I didn't know she passed until today; rest in peace Maureen.

“Maureen spent her whole life as a caregiver. First, for her mom and dad, then aunts and uncles, neighbors and lastly all her clients at the CYA's Adult Day Care. Everyday she treated her clients with respect, dignity and love. She loved them and they certainly loved her.

I remember Maur coming to get me when I was little to stay at her house for weekends. On Saturdays Maur, Aunt Marie and I would go to the Kaufmans on McKnight Road. It seemed soooooo far away. Then in the evening Johnny would come over with a pizza from the Star Lite Lounge and we would eat pizza, Snyder Potato Chips and drink Coke while watching TV. What more could a kid want? To this day I still look for the silver bag of Snyder's Potato Chips... when I can find them.

Maur also bought me my first Nancy Drew book! Then let's not forget all the pool parties. Lots of laughs and fun. Maur will be missed by all who knew her. She certainly fought hard these last few years.

“ I was hoping we would get back this summer to see Maur one more time. Wonderful memories when we use to ice skate on the lake at Highland Park and spend Friday nights bowling and going to Hoffstot's for dark beer and fish sandwiches surrounded by family. The best times were probably celebrating summer holidays around her pool. You will be missed, cuz.💕 Colleen and Bob

“ Maureen was simply beautiful, inside and out. Always with a great smile, always providing a helping hand to anyone who needed it. Maur was certainly loved by friends and family; she will be missed by all of us. Her faith was strong; I’m sure she is in the heavenly presence of her Lord right now. Joyce Fay-Tucker
