

Maxine Marie Bilbie

June 3, 1942 - June 30, 2016

Maxine Bilbie

Age 74, of Springdale, passed away peacefully in her home on Thursday, June 30, 2016 with her loving family by her side after battling a lingering illness.

Maxine was born June 3, 1942. She was the beloved wife of Art Bilbie; and is survived by her loving children, Allen (Chrissy) Bilbie of Franklin, and Lisa (Tony Green) Bilbie of New Kensington; Chrissy's children, Danyelle, Michelle, and Heather; her sister, Marlene McCurdy of Oakmont; several nieces and nephews; and her bird, Doobie, who brought her much joy.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Neal and Jean Yeager; paternal grandparents, Neal and Genevieve Yeager; great-grandmother, Nanna Kurtz; maternal grandparents, James and Irene Strang; and several aunts and uncles.

Maxine earned an associates degree in accounting from CCAC. She was instrumental in starting Springdale's Crime Watch Program and served on the Springdale Planning Commission. She was also a past den mother for the Cub Scout pack at Springdale Presbyterian Church. Maxine worked as a proofreader for the Valley News Dispatch before working for the Federal Energy Assistance Program and retired from the PA Department of Welfare.

At Maxine's request, there will be no viewing.
