“ Bill, Dan and Family,
I am so sad to hear about your mother. Bo and Johnny are here in Virginia this weekend, visiting my mom and me. We all want you to know that we have so many fond memories of her. We loved her and "Mrs. Satler" was such an important part of the Coral Drive neighborhood dynamics. The Phillips kids just want you to know that her kindness meant so much to us. During the summers, when we were little, Cora and I would kindly refuse a drink from our moms, just to pop over to your house to get Kool-Aid from your mom. She would always serve it in a special cup with a built in straw and was so sweet to us. Bo loved her pancakes. He remembers the morning after a sleepover, didn't know where everyone else was; but he would be in the kitchen with Mrs. Satler eating those crispy pancakes. My mom said there were many conversations talking to each other "over the fence". Throughout the years, if I was ever driving by the neighborhood, I would have to stop by and see if she was home. I read the one statement in the obituary about her being a second mom to many of her children's friends...that really says it all! I often think about our Coral Drive neighborhood, it truly was a great place to grow up, and your mom was a big part of that wonderful experience. We are thinking of you and your family.

Sharon (Phillips) Mace*
