“ Pat and I worked together for a few years and were friends for many more. She was authentic, sincere, funny, and feisty. And she could be so kind and caring about the people she loved. While we didn't see each other often - we had lunch last fall and she was looking for something fun to keep her busy. I'll miss her honesty and friendship. My condolences to her family and friends. I hope your best memories bring you comfort when you remember Patricia. There are many people who will miss her laugh and her genuine spirit. We were all lucky to know her. Pam Golias
