Many thoughts of Pat are wonderful, but the one thought that stands out the most for me was his love of his dogs over the years. You could always see the connection he had for his buddies. Good people always love their pets, Pat proved that.

Pat was a warrior and a daredevil. And a stickler for details. I will never forget the lessons he taught me. I am glad that his son arranged for a visit when I was in PA in 2019.

RIP Pat. I am reminded of an Airborne Ranger marching cadence, but I can't repeat that here.
