

Patrick Charles Smith

July 27, 1959 - February 14, 2017

Patrick C. Smith

Age 57, passed away peacefully in his Allegheny Township home on February 14, 2017.

Born in Wilkesburg, PA on July 27, 1959 to Charles and Gertrude Smith, Patrick grew up in North Huntingdon where he graduated from Norwin High School in 1977. He enjoyed science and electronics classes, played trombone from middle school through high school marching bands, was a member of the swim team, and loved working on cars. After graduation, he enrolled at Penn State campuses, again favoring science related courses such as geology and astronomy. Patrick investigated several occupations, including masonry and farming, before working at Gordon Terminal Services in McKees Rocks until his retirement in 2015.

In his spare time, Pat enjoyed woodworking/furniture building (mainly oak), gardening, sci-fi and horror films, and working on vehicles/equipment. From childhood on, he helped to construct and maintain his family's camp in Clarion County. While there he relaxed by canoeing, fishing, hunting, reading, and woodcutting. During his last two years, he was a participant at Community Life in Tarentum.

He is survived by his wife, Sharon Trusilo Smith of Allegheny Township and two sons, Daniel of Springdale and Mathew (Lauren and two step-grandsons, Jacob and Benjamin) of Natrona Heights. Also, by his parents, Charles and Gertrude Smith of North Huntingdon; a brother, Michael (Lori) Smith of North Huntingdon; a sister Sally (Daniel) Dugo of Slippery Rock. And by five nephews: Richard (Kylie and greatneice Alexee) Smith of Hunker; Drew (Jenna) Smith of North Huntingdon; Mitchell Smith of North Huntingdon; Luke and Charles Dugo of Slippery Rock. Patrick will be dearly missed by both his immediate and his large extended family.

A memorial mass will be held at Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in Natrona Heights, PA, on Saturday, March 11 at 1:00 pm, immediately followed by internment of his cremains at Mount Airy Cemetery.
