“ This is Cousin Nicky.

I have fond memories of being at Uncle Ralph and Aunt Rita's house on Hornaday Road in Carrick. Dolores, Donna and I enjoyed listening to 45s played on one of his antique Juke boxes in the basement, while dodging the huge, dripping St. Bernard. I'll always remember Uncle Ralph's sense of humor and warm smile. I remember my Dad saying he was always reading late at night and become very knowledgeable about a lot of things. When he worked at a hardware store he was able to help people with any question asked of him. I know he was a good cook. I'll always remember his huge heart and warm smile.
