Rayma Werle (Ramona Rayma Dotterer)

January 13, 1944 - April 4, 2025

Rayma Ramona (Dotterer) Werle, 81, passed away on Friday, April 4, 2025, in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

She is survived by her daughters, Juliann (Werle) Zoetmulder and Kristen Werle; her sister, Judy Neelan; and her beloved grandchildren, Justin and Olivia Werle, and Alex, Charlie, and Kate Zoetmulder.

Rayma was born in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, to Ramona and Raymond Dotterer on January 13, 1944. She was raised in Glenshaw and married the love of her life, Craig Werle, on July 11, 1969. They moved to Stuart, Florida in 1978, lived in Milwaukee for a few years, then returned to Stuart until Craig's passing in 2017. Rayma then moved back to Pittsburgh to be near her family. Rayma spent much of her life working alongside her husband in their family businesses. She was a devoted wife, mother, sister, and grandmother, always putting others before herself. Her warmth, generosity, and unwavering care for those she loved left a lasting impact on everyone who knew her.

Rayma will be deeply missed by all who were fortunate enough to be loved by her.

A private service will be held by the family to honor her memory.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Meals On Wheels; a service Rayma treasured over the last few months of her life. <https://action.mealsonwheelsamerica.org/a/mowa-donation-form>

“ She was one of the kindest people I knew when I was a kid. I remember her letting me stand on a stool in front of the stove and mix pudding and it was just her and me. I don't know why I remember that but she was so comfortable to be around.
