. He was a pool manager at the Chapel Gate Swim Club and the manager of the Fox Chapel Racquet Club where he took up tennis, which he LOVED. He also loved his church, the Community United Methodist church of Aspinwall. He was a lay leader, a conference representative, a Sunday school teacher, and did anything else that was needed. It was a second home for him.

Bob would help anyone who needed him and was known for his beautiful smile, which will be missed by many.

“ DEar Tina and family,

My deepest heartfelt condolences to you all.

Tina, I remember vividly your courtship with Bob, coming later after his terrible grief over the loss of his first wife and concern over his children's loss of their mother. . I thought, "God knows what He is doing here by bringing a soul like Tina into Bob's empty life." Your forthcoming marriage record has proven both God and me right in our judgment about your union with Bob and your lovely family that emerged.

*Sending much love and many fond memories of the past,
Betty Merti*
