“ It’s been more than 15 years since I first met Ron. I was looking for a new mechanic and Galore’s Service was recommended by a mutual friend. Little did I know that day that I would meet such a great guy. It did not take long before I found myself passing time at the garage even though my cars were not there being worked on. Ron could hold a conversation well. Over the years, stories of past and present would go back and forth. We fondly shared memories of our youth, the time we spent in the service, and all the different things we did to make a buck when times were hard. There was nothing going on in the world that we did not have an opinion on and could’ve easily solved all the worlds problems if there was anyone to pay attention to our ideas. I could go on. It’s not that often that you come across someone who is so genuine. Ron was a good and honest man and had my respect and trust. My memories are fond and I am both lucky and proud to have had him as a friend.

*“ So sorry to hear of Ron’s passing. Even though I knew Ron for only 8 years, it felt like I knew him my entire life. He was so easy to talk to and was such a good man. I will miss seeing him at the garage.

“Rest In Peace Pap. I'll forever wonder “what if” none of this makes sense, why did you have to go? I know you woke up Wednesday morning and drove yourself to your final destination not knowing this would be your last time driving, and your last time waking up, and that will never ever sit right with me.

I'd like to take a second to remember how every single morning you kissed grandma goodbye before heading to the shop or how every single weekend you both went out to week. I'll never forget your famous steak salad or the sound of the same cowboy shows on the tv every day. I'll never forget the musical horn you had on your truck or how hard you would laugh at your own jokes! Please watch over grandma from above Lord knows we still need her as much as we needed you. The world and everyone on it will be completely different without you. I'll talk to you every night so please listen for me. I love you Pap.

Love, Destiny.

Beverly, Randy and the whole family....I am so upset by this man's departure. He always was so nice and helpful. Also so pleasant to talk to in the lobby. For years, Jim & I have given he and Randy our business. I will truly miss him and am so sorry for your loss. God bless you all. What a special man!!!
