“ *I was a volunteer at Saint Mary's and spent many afternoons playing Bingo with Rosalie, actually she taught me how to play. We had a special table with certain residents, Rosalie was the last to pass from this small group. She was very special, demanding in a friendly way, watchful, and enjoyable to be with. I don't believe I will ever forget her, especially that voice. I won't say rest in peace because I am sure that even now she is very busy in her new home. My condolences to her family. Norman C.
