

Rosemarie Carnley

October 5, 1942 - February 6, 2026

Rosemarie "Rose" Carnley, age 83, of Penn Hills, formerly of Texas, passed away peacefully on February 6, 2026. Born on October 5, 1942, in Nanty Glo, PA, she was the cherished daughter of the late Wally and Julia Varescak. Rosemarie was the loving wife of the late Billy Carnley Sr., with whom she shared 56 years of devoted marriage.

Rosemarie's professional life was marked by her dedicated service as a FAA Group Supervisor for air traffic control at Hobby Airport in Houston, TX. Upon retirement, Rosemarie found joy in her hobbies, which included sewing and quilting, as well as peaceful adult coloring books.

Rosemarie was the devoted mother of Billy (Lorraine) Carnley Jr. and the late Daniel Michael Carnley. Beloved sister of Jean (Robert) Roxby, Elizabeth (Henry) Mazor, and Ann Louise (Walter) Pluchinsky. She was also a cherished aunt to Julie Rose and her family and Joann Linah and her family.

Rosemarie's family extends heartfelt gratitude to her dear friend, Pat Stadterman. They also wish to acknowledge the compassionate care provided by the staff at Amber Woods and Harmar Village, as well as the doctors and staff at St. Margaret Hospital.

In keeping with Rosemarie's wishes, funeral services will be private.
