“ Uncle Bill was a man of enormous faith in God and truly an inspiration to me every time I saw him. There is no doubt that St. Peter escorted him personally to the front of the line when he arrived at the gates of heaven. To my dear Aunt Charity and my cousin Diane and your family, my deepest sympathy. While our family grieves Uncle Bill's loss, we can rejoice that he is at home with the Lord and all the loved ones that have gone before him. Rest in peace, Uncle Bill.
