

Scott Allan Shipley

February 9, 1974 - May 26, 2018

Scott Allan Shipley "The All American"

Age 44, of Mon Valley, passed away on Saturday, May 26, 2018.

Beloved fiancé of Aimee Onisko, who was born on the same day, took their first breaths together and shared in his last breath; devoted father of Bryson Shipley; loving son of Mark Shipley and the late Janet (Woteska) Shipley; step-son of Joyce Glessner; brother of Kelli Zawart and Dana Crosby; uncle of Cameron Horning, Jade Crosby, and Xander, Mallory, Cassadi and Meadow Zawart; nephew of Diana Shipley and late Steve Shipley and Kim Shipley; and second son of Sherryl Wall.

Scott was an athlete, competing as #9 in all his activities. He played deck hockey from a young age and participated in Toughman Boxing. He competed in two professional boxing events and was in the first match held at Heinz Field. Scott was very patriotic and was known best as "All American" by the boxing community. He had a big heart, welcomed everyone into his life and stood up for the underdog. He was full of love and shared it with his family, especially his son, Bryson. Scott will be truly missed.
