

Sidney Bradley

May 5, 1941 - April 14, 2021

Sidney "Bud" Bradley, Jr.

Age 79, of New Kensington, passed away on Wednesday, April 14, 2021.

Survived by his beloved wife of 57 years, Donna Lee Bradley (Elder-McCullough); loving children, Todd M. (Lori) Bradley, Brian (Michelle) Bradley and Steven Bradley; grandchildren, Amanda, Nichole (Jeremy), Kaylee, Conner, Kaden and Shannon; and great-grandchildren, Elle, Mia, Aurora and Axton. Also survived by numerous nieces and nephews.

Preceded in death by his brother, Jack (Sally) Bradley; and his parents, Sidney Bradley, Sr. and Harriet Bradley (Papilinski).

Bud was a graduate of Ken Hi in 1960. Bud was an Army combat veteran, serving in Vietnam. He was a voracious reader and was proud of earning his Bachelor of Nursing degree from the University of Pittsburgh at the age of 53. He also owned and operated Tidd's Beverage in Arnold for 8 years. Bud was a member of St. Josephs Church in New Kensington.

A celebration of life service is being planned for a later date.

Memorial donations may be made, in lieu of flowers, to the Wounded Warrior

Project (www.woundedwarriorproject.org).

“ I first met Bud about 70 years ago, when my brother, Chuck, introduced us. The three of us were like brothers over the ensuing years, forming many memories together that'll always be there. Our lives wound up taking different paths, but our friendship and the memories we formed remained. He'll be missed by all of us who knew him, but the memories he helped form will always be there for us. Rest in peace, Bud.
