“ Prof Kompali cared about his students deeply. I had lived in the hope that I would cross paths again with him to collaborate. I share the sadness and pain, especially of his wife and children, and also of the CMU fraternity.

“ Working with Prof Kompalli and being supervised by him taught me a whole lot, and was certainly the main highlight of my grad school experience. His dedication, support, words of encouragement, and advice towards my educational/research growth are privileges I am forever grateful for. Prof Kompalli left an impact that would never be forgotten. His demise is indeed a very sad one and I can only pray that his family is granted the fortitude to bear this great loss.

“ Prof. Suryaprakash Kompali was one of my professors that are in my top 1% in terms of professors who love their students, who listen and are willing to go an extra mile for their students. I am a very stubborn student and school has never been one of my favorite places to be yet Prof. Kompali made it a home for me. I have a reason to pursue my dreams and goals because of a 5 min conversation we had. Prof. Kompali, you will be forever missed. May your soul rest in peace dear friend.

“ He was such a fantastic professor. Though I did not meet him in person, his wonderful character shone forth while taking his data structure course from zoom. Oh, death, this is unfair. He shall be greatly missed. May God console his family, and may his soul rest in peace. Rest in the bosom of the lord and dine with the angels, SP.

“ I'm shocked and saddened by this devastating news.

Dr. SP was a golden heart human being I have ever met, We first met in my home country (Rwanda) and then after in his home country... from him I have learnt a lot, especially simplicity and humanity. He left good memories which will remain forever.

Deepest condolences to his family and friends.

He will always be in our hearts.
