

Susan L. Dingman

January 6, 1958 - January 11, 2019

Susan Dingman

Of Mt. Pleasant, formerly Allison Park, passed away on Friday, January 11, 2019.

Daughter of the late E.A. Patzer and Alice (Caldwell). Survived by beloved sister, Ann (Wayne) Ehlinger; and nephews, Jim Goggins and Andrew Ehlinger.

Susan was a 1975 graduate of Hampton High School. She was an avid reader and huge fan of Stephen King.

Contributions made be made to the Ehlinger family to aid in funeral costs.

Tribute Wall

“ Susan L. Dingman

October 09, 2023 at 09:55 AM

“ Susan L. Dingman

October 06, 2023 at 11:36 AM

“ I haven't seen or been in touch with Sue for many years but she will always be a part of my cherished childhood memories. Rest In peace Sue. My condolences to family and friends.
Colleen States

colleen albrecht - January 17, 2019 at 07:07 PM

“ Rest in Peace Sue - I will always remember your wonderful laugh and kindness.

Lynnette - January 15, 2019 at 08:15 PM

“ Rest in Peace, Susan. I will cherish the memories of all the crazy times we had together. My sincerest condolences to you, Ann, Wayne, Jimmy, and Andrew. Heaven has gained another "Patzer" angel.

Kathy Thornton - January 15, 2019 at 06:47 AM

WA

“ Ok "Sis in law" sorry u left us to early ,,Hope u teach everybody a lesson out in the web world LIFE is TO Short Do things and Say things,, 4 the people u care for tell them u care about them before its to late”

Wayne - January 14, 2019 at 10:39 PM

“ My BEST friend 🙏🙏🙏

Ann Patzer Ehlinger - January 14, 2019 at 10:31 PM

ED

I just found out now. Two months later. I was going to call her this afternoon. God Bless you ALL! I will be throwing a fit at MY family. I haven't been on FB because of my health.

Edward W. Dingman - March 10, 2019 at 11:50 AM