

Susan Shaw Edwards

May 4, 1927 - March 14, 2020

Susan Edwards (Shaw)

Age 92, of Masonic Village in Sewickley, and previously of Kilbuck Township for 50 years, passed away on Saturday, March 14, 2020.

Born May 4, 1927, Susan was the daughter of the late Elma and Charles Shaw. Susan was raised in Ridgewood, NJ. In 1948, Susan married the love of her life, Alan Hitchcock Edwards, who preceded her in death in 2013. They settled in Ben Avon and later moved to their home in Kilbuck Township. Susan attended the University of Pittsburgh and earned her bachelor's degree in 1971, and her Master of Social Work in 1973. Susan found her niche in a private practice working with families; helping others was her passion! Susan enjoyed skiing, traveling, reading, and socializing. Susan gave unabashedly to her church, The Community Presbyterian Church of Ben Avon. She taught classes, hosted events, traveled on a mission trip to Malawi, served on many committees, and was a friend to everyone. Her last years were spent at Masonic Village. Her family thanks the many devoted employees who assisted with Susan's well-being during her long tenure.

Susan is survived by her daughter, Claudia (Allen); her son, Greg (Judy); and her two grandchildren, Eric (Kori) and Christina.

She will be missed by all those who benefited from her insight and kindness.

Memorial and interment were private.

Contributions may be made in Susan's name to the Community Presbyterian Church of Ben Avon, 7501 Church Avenue, Pittsburgh, PA. 15202.

“ What a remarkable woman! Most kind, always supportive, high spirited, and strong. I will be forever grateful for Susan's counsel many years ago; her warm wisdom kept me grounded during a difficult time. And, of course, Susan is responsible for giving me the loveliest and best friend I could ever have hoped for. Bless you, Susan, in your new adventure and give Stick a hug for me. With love, Marci
