“ Sue and I were friends for something like 45 years. We were part of a big theater gang, then room mates in Florida for a couple of years, along with her sons Billy and Tommy (well, you WERE Billy and Tommy back then!). She introduced me to my husband Jerry. (OK, so the marriage only lasted 24 years. It still was a pretty good match-up!) She was to me a friend, a mentor, a Big Sister, a Mom. We may not have spent much time together over the last years, but when we did, it was like it was just yesterday catching up on old times. So many thoughts and memories. I have only good ones of you, Sue. You have all my love and respect. Susan Wood
