August 9, 1964 - September 16, 2021

Susan Elaine Waugaman

Entered this earth on August 9, 1964. Passed on Thursday, September 16, 2021.

Susan was a loving mother, grandmother, and wife, and is survived by her loving husband, Ronald J. Waugaman; daughters, Rachel S. Tocco (Cochran) and Elizabeth M. Lang (Cochran); son, Seth D. Waugaman, still at home; and stepsons, Ronald J. Waugaman, Jr. and Timothy M. Waugaman; her mother, Audrey. L. Williams; brothers, Steven, Alan, John, Matthew and Robert Williams; sister, Jeanine (Williams) Koontz; 8 grandchildren; many nieces, nephews; and the best of friends (SFTHA--You just wouldn't understand).

Susan was an avid outdoorswoman and loved her garden. She took her children camping, hiking, biking, and always had the best activities for her grandchildren. "You can't hurt steel" she'd often say, and she proved it by never letting anything take her down. Susan had the most beautiful and radiant smile, which lit up any room she entered. She passed it down to her grandchildren as well. She has raised a life and legacy with those that love her dearly and will carry on her endeavors and likenesses for years to come. She has loved so many things about this life, her family, and her friends, and she cannot wait to see them again someday.

Susan is preceded in death by her brothers, Timothy S. Williams, Kent E. Williams and Joel E. Williams; and beloved sister, Lisa A. Williams Settnek.

Donations, on lieu of flowers, may be made in Susan's name to the Janes United Methodist Church Educational Fund or the ALS Association of Western Pennsylvania.
