“Velma was a very special lady as we all know, and very special to me. She was a friend and confidante. When she broke her back and was hospitalized, she didn't sleep well. I would get called in for transplants, most times with long waits, and we would talk for hours. I was either pregnant or Anthony was very young, but she gave me so much support and motherly advice, places to take him, stories of wonderful times she had raising her own. These later years, I would only get to have lunch with her twice a year but I looked so forward to seeing my good friend and we never ran out of things to talk about. I will miss both Don and Velma until I see them when I pass over. Until then, I know they are pure joy, together, and looking over their children and grandchildren. I am a better person because of them, and will love them and keep them in my heart forever ❤️🙏.
