

William Coates Jr.

December 30, 1934 - December 19, 2020

William Coates, Jr. AKA "Jr." "Bill" or "Willie"

85 years young, born in Van Meter, PA, lived in the Homewood area of Pittsburgh and passed on December 19, 2020.

He is survived by his children, Jason R. Coates and Latash James Coates, the late Stacie R. Coates, Anthony Coates and Aneesah Saahir Coates, Doreen R. Coates, and William Coates, III and Licile "Tiny" Coates; an unknown number of grandchildren; unknown number of great-grandchildren. The only boy of 6 children, the late Beatrice "Bee" Alexander, the late Vera Rucker, the late Maxine Coates, Fannie Bates, and Naomi Johnson. So of William Coates, Sr. and Aline Giddins Coates.

One of his favorite hobbies was fishing at his favorite spot at Lake Wilhelm, on the rocks under the bridge. Also a longtime member of the VFW Post 4040 in Homewood; and also known for repairing things that were un-repairable. But most of all, being a man of his word and giving a helping hand to anyone that needed it.

Special thanks to all the men and women who cared for William in his time of need, friends, family and medical staff. We thank you all.

Tribute Wall

“ William Coates Jr.

October 09, 2023 at 09:55 AM

“ William Coates Jr.

October 06, 2023 at 11:36 AM

“ This man was my grandfather and the people that did his funeral murdered his daughter and tried to steal my inheritance and birthrights.

Jermaine coates - March 13, 2023 at 07:42 AM its mirmir they did us wrong

amir - March 12, 2025 at 02:19 PM