“ So sorry for your to hear of Bills passing, he was such a beautiful person. So loving and so filled with happiness. He will be missed by all who knew him, because if you knew him, you had to love him...we will always remember his love for the fire department, it was his second home. May all who loved him know he is in heaven,this I am positive about. Love and prayers for his loving mom and family,and all who loved him.
